

The Three shepherds of Bethlehem

Father Hermes Council tried something new this past Christmas.

Grand Knight David Yasinski and District Deputy Maurice Champigny got together and wrote a short pageant about the 3 shepherds of Bethlehem. Myra Champigny purchased a pattern and lots of the ugliest fabric she could find then sewed together 3 great looking costumes.

Two knights and a parishioner acted as the 3 shepherds, with all of the action taking place on the outskirts of Bethlehem. The outskirts turned out to be our church's vestibule this year because of the bitter cold weather. Bethlehem was inside the church. Shepherd Daveed (Grand Knight David Yasinski) and Shepherd Garibald (Past grand Knight and Past District Deputy Gary Wourms) brought the "Good News" of the birth of Christ as announced by the Angel, but grouchy and hard of hearing Shepherd Patrick (Pat Blais) mostly complained about there being no room in Bethlehem and of his harsh treatment at the hands of the locals. This mini-pageant was staged as a continuous repeating scenario for 1/2 hour preceding Midnight Mass.
